ATC Revokes Liquor Permit from Convicted Felon

December 16, 2011

Baton Rouge, LA – Louisiana Alcohol & Tobacco Control (“ATC”) Commissioner, Troy Hebert has revoked the state liquor permit issued to Frances Mae Williams d/b/a Club 65 located at 3506 Hwy 65 Clayton, LA upon finding that Williams, the sole owner of the bar, recently received a narcotics related felony conviction and therefore no longer qualifies for a liquor permit of any type in Louisiana. The felony conviction also precludes Williams from obtaining employment at any establishment licensed as a bar.

Commissioner Hebert noted that Club 65 has been sanctioned by ATC on three previous occasions for violations of the alcoholic beverage control laws since obtaining a permit in 2009.

Commissioner Hebert stated that ATC will work diligently to ensure that everyone holding an alcoholic beverage permit is qualified and complying with the law. “We are here to help honest business people stay in business and to keep criminals and law violators out of business,” added Hebert.
